My Testimony:

Stepping into that threshold was the most amazing thing about joining a whole bundle of cheerleaders.

Through the three days journey, I learnt to appreciate the laughter, the serene vibe, the home, and the sisterly roll. It was indeed worth the journey.

My anticipation of coming was indeed met with a wow.

On the last night of the retreat, I felt like a freshly brushed she warrior ready to go out there and face the world and destroy every obstacle that would come in my way, and I am doing just that.

Thank you so much   CivSource Africa and my sweet MOPANE sisters for an experience of a lifetime.

I will forever be grateful.
